Selected Catalog

of

STANDARD JUVENILE BOOKS

in

Reinforced Library Binding

1929

A. C. McCLURG & CO.
LIBRARY DEPARTMENT
333 E. Ontario St. Chicago

THIS catalog comprises a carefully prepared list of books for children and young folks, chosen from several recognized sources of recommendation. They are the standard Juveniles which are in constant demand all through the year, and in current use in Public Libraries and in many School Libraries all over the country. All of the titles have the approval of the American Library Association, numerous State Library Commissions, Children's Librarians, and are otherwise recommended by authorities on literature for young readers.

The non-copyrighted titles that are made in many different editions are offered here in reasonably wide selections of editions, with due consideration to the important features of type and illustrations. Large and clear print is used in the series listed, thereby appealing more readily to the child and making for a greater use and circulation of the book.

Children's books get the hardest use of all books in a library. For this reason many librarians want them in the strongest and most durable binding to be obtained, and because of this we have made this special collection in reseeded and reinforced binding to afford the maximum of wear and durability. A great number are in buckram binding (indicated * in the catalog), while others have been reinforced in the original cases. The buckram covers have the same stamping and cover designs used in the original editions. All books are completely reseeded in the latest approved method of over-stitching.

Mark items with number of copies wanted and return this list as your order. Another copy of the catalog will be mailed to you.
